

DECA - FBLA

LINCOLN HIGH SCHOOL

TOP REASONS TO JOIN DECA AND FBLA

DECA and FBLA are the premier student business organizations and are being combined for the overall benefits in leadership, community service and competition opportunities.

Community Service

Fun opportunities to help our communities, interact with many business/community leaders, and it also looks great on transcripts, scholarship applications and resumes.

Leadership Training

Not a born leader? No problem, learn how to be a professional and demonstrate leadership skills. Born Leader? Great, expand your skills and get a chance to shine.

Socialing/Networking

Get to know people outside of your current bubble and interact with students from all over WV and the world.

Scholarships/Awards

Apply for hundreds of scholarships, participate in district, state, national and international competitions and be eligible for over $200,000 in scholarships, cash prizes and awards.

Travel Opportunities

National Fall Leadership Conferences (NFLC), National Leadership Conferences (NLC), Leadership Workshops, Career Pathways Conferences, WV Career Development Conference (CDC) and International Career Development Conference (CDC) provides opportunities to travel around our state and nation. State competitions for DECA and FBLA are held in Charleston and the national competitions are in held in major cities across the United States in June.

FUN FACTS ABOUT DECA AND FBLA

DECA has over 215,000 members and FBLA has over over 230,000 members!

DECA and FBLA are the largest business organizations in the world!

FBLA and DECA members are 40% more likely to start their own business than non members!

W LEADER AV

Combined dues are $21 ($11 DECA/ $10 FBLA). Students may also fundraise to pay for their dues.

lincolndecafbla.weebly.com